UPS is honored to serve the needs of the US Department of Defense and Federal Civilian Agencies. Selected by the General Services Administration (GSA) as winner of the second-generation Domestic Delivery Services contract (DDS2), UPS is the preferred federal government partner for express and ground domestic delivery. As a long-term US Department of Defense partner, UPS provides international shipment services to Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) and US Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM), through the Worldwide Express (WWX-5) contract. UPS is an active participant in the US Civil Reserve Air Fleet (CRAF) program, through contractual agreements with the Air Mobility Command (AMC). The mission of the UPS government team is to provide best in class service to all US government departments and entities, regardless of the type of transport, to ensure regulatory compliance both within the continental United States and abroad.
